

Health Food Store

In foods of organic and not, neither as seductive as one who so natural and sweet, moves, hard to meet yet truth would cause a stop to talk and ponder in shop and bite into darkness sweet Yes for a moment we meet A moment more fulfilling than most where whole lifetimes rarely touch by word or heart very much A moment filled with search and share while dangles a strand of wispy hair To stop and share a bit a relationship is lit A smile and for all to see a soul as wonderful as she.
A moment of share and lust Good it may to leave it be, for words may ruin the trust A moment like that for me, better than a life of superficiality
